Savory Halloween Party Snacks

Serving and Presentation Tips

When you serve up these eerie treats, presentation is half the fun! Try serving pieces in hair-raising Halloween colors like black, orange, purple, or even metallics for your platters and cake stands. Arrange your sweets and savory Halloween snacks separately so guests don’t get them mixed up! Try out some fun garnishes like plastic spiders, rubber bats, or even edible decorations like candy corn, crushed chocolate, or Halloween-themed sprinkles.

1. What Are Good Halloween Snacks?

   Good Halloween snacks are ones that look festive, are easy to eat (finger-friendly), and—above all else—are tasty! And what better way to make a Halloween snack even more delicious than by enhancing it with classic candies like M&M’s and SNICKERS?

2. What Snacks Should You Bring to a Halloween Party?

   Choose snacks that travel well and don’t degrade quickly. Think cookies, bars, party mixes, or anything that can sit out without melting or getting soggy. Bringing something simple like a bucket full of SNICKERS Bars(open in new tab) is also a great choice (and it’ll make you very popular at the party!).

3. What Are Some Easy Last-Minute Halloween Snacks?

   A great easy, last-minute Halloween snack you can make is SNICKERS Cinnamon Spice Party Mix(open in new tab). It’s quick (about 15 minutes) and uses items you may already have like pretzels and cereal. 4. What Halloween Snacks Work Well for School Parties?

   Go with items that are pre-portioned, nut-safe (double-check your ingredients!), and low mess. Things like decorated cookies (M&M’s Cookies & Screams Skulls(open in new tab)), mini whoopie pies (M&M’s Sweet and Cheesy Stuffed Whoopie Pies(open in new tab)), and party mix (SNICKERS Cinnamon Spice Party Mix(open in new tab)) without raw meat or dairy issues are great picks.

5. What Are Good Halloween Finger Foods for Adults?

   Adults often enjoy bolder, more complex flavors. Treats like chocolate-covered chips with bacon, spiced snack mixes featuring savory and sweet combos, or items incorporating premium chocolate (like DOVE) go over well.
